

THE WORLD-WIDE WAR IS OVER

BY HARRY S. COHEN

ARR. BY HARRY J. LINCOLN

PUBLISHED BY

HARRY J. LINCOLN MUSIC CO.
2209 FAIRMOUNT AVE.

PHILA. PA.

2 The World-Wide War Is Over

Words & Music by HARRY S. COHEN
Arr. by Harry J. Lincoln

INTRO.

The musical score consists of eight staves of music. The first staff begins with an introduction in B-flat major, 3/4 time, featuring a piano-like part with eighth-note chords. The second staff starts with a vocal line in B-flat major, 3/4 time, with lyrics about the world being filled with darkness and hearts being torn. The third staff continues the vocal line with lyrics about freedom's light growing and hearts being scattered. The fourth staff introduces a new section with lyrics about light being dim and souls being lost. The fifth staff continues this section with lyrics about souls being scattered. The sixth staff introduces a new section with lyrics about love being far and distant. The seventh staff continues this section with lyrics about stars being sown for the future. The eighth staff concludes the section with lyrics about stars being hidden and dew being shed. The music is arranged for a full orchestra or band, with various instruments indicated by staves on the right side of the page.

All the world was filled with dark - ness, Free - dom's light was grow - ing Man - y hearts are torn and shat - tered, Filled with grief they beat no dim, Yet its light was al - ways burn - ing, Like a more, Man - y souls are lost and seat - ered, On a love that - ed with - in, Like a star 'twas al - ways far and dis - tant shore, Free - dom's seeds are sown for - shin - ing, Tho' it some - times hid from view, It has shown its ev - er, And like flow - ers filled with dew, They will bloom on Copyright MCMXIX, by Harry S. Cohen.

Published by Harry J. Lincoln Music Co., 2209 Fairmount Ave., Phila., Pa.

The Worl

sil - ver lin - ing, — For the world-wide war is thru. — earth's fair heath-er, — For the world-wide war is thru. —

CHORUS

For the world-wide war is o - ver, — And the peace bells! once more, — Soon the fields will bloom with clo - ver, — And their scents come thru t door. — For the gold - en stairs are shin-ing, — From their ser - vice flag a - bove, — Now shall free - dom's light shine thru the night, Filling all the world with love. —

a tempo

rit. a tempo

WE GIVE YOU ALL A WELCOME HOME

Words and Music by H.V. COYLE

"I'll Be Proud Among The Crown In Ireland"
"I'm a Soldier of God Has Blessed You And Me When He Gave Us Liberty" etc.

Arr. by Harry J. Lincoln

CHORUS

The musical score consists of four staves of music in 2/4 time, key signature of B-flat major (two flats). The vocal parts are arranged for soprano, alto, tenor, and bass. The lyrics are integrated into the vocal parts. The piano accompaniment is provided in the bass staff. The score includes a dynamic range from soft (p) to forte (f), with various slurs and grace notes. The vocal parts are separated by vertical bar lines, while the piano part follows a continuous harmonic progression.

Yan-kee boy's we're here to meet you Yan-kee boy's we're here to greet you, With ate and Blue, That you fought for so brave man be ra - cy and lib - er - ty, Can clad in di - vidual world her own, Hall, hall, the gang's all here, To give you all a wel-come home, Yankee house,